

Christ Secures Supremacy for Man

Hebrews 02:05–13

1 God's plan for the world to come

- a. It does not belong to angels
- b. It belongs to man

2 God's plan for man

- a. To create man lower than the angels for a short time
- b. To crown man with glory and honour and authority
- c. Man is presently seen in a fallen state

3 God's plan for Christ

- a. To make Christ a little lower than the angels; to suffer and taste death for everyone
- b. To be exalted, crowned with honour and glory
- c. To show the very nature of God
  - 1) By bringing many sons to glory
  - 2) By making the author of their salvation perfect through suffering

5 It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking.

6 But there is a place where someone has testified: “What is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?

7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honour

8 And put everything under his feet.” In putting everything under him, God left nothing that is not subject to him. Yet at present we do not see everything subject to him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because he suffered death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

10 In bringing many sons to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering.

d. To share equally with the holy,
that is, believers

1) The same Father

2) The same position:
Brotherhood

3) The same worship

4) The same way of trust

11 Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family.
So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers.

12 He says,
“I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the presence of the congregation
I will sing your praises.”

13 And again,
“I will put my trust in him.”
And again he says,
“Here am I,
and the children God has given me.”
