

The Way to Conquer Trials and Temptation

James 01: 05–12

1 Ask wisdom of God

- a. God gives generously
- b. God does not scold

- c. Ask in faith, never doubt
 - 1) Doubting illustrated

 - 2) Doubting receives nothing

 - 3) Doubting shows instability

2 Rejoice in one's status

- a. The poor: Christ exalts
- b. The rich: Christ humbles
 - 1) A danger: False security

 - 2) The body of the rich ages and dies

 - 3) The pursuits of the rich fade away

3 Remember the reward for persevering: A crown of life

- 5 If any of you lacks wisdom,
he should ask God,
who gives generously to all without finding fault,
and it will be given to him.
- 6 But when he asks,
he must believe and not doubt,
because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind.
- 7 That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord;
- 8 He is a double-minded man, unstable in all he does.
- 9 The brother in humble circumstances ought to take pride in his high position.
- 10 But the one who is rich should take pride in his low position, because he will pass away like a wild flower.
- 11 For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant;
its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed.
In the same way,
the rich man will fade away even while he goes about his business.
- 12 Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.
