

Remember the Love you have experienced and obey God

Deuteronomy 11:01–07

Remember

what you have experienced: love and obey God

1. Remember:

It was not your children who experienced the discipline and the greatness and power of God

1) His power in saving you from Egypt (a symbol of the world):
The signs, terrible plagues God did

2) His power in delivering you from being recaptured and enslaved by the enemy: His power in destroying the pursuing army in the Red Sea

2. Remember: It was not your children who experienced God's guidance through the wilderness wanderings, nor His judgment upon rebellion

1) The example of the rebellion of Dalhan and Abiram

2) God miraculously caused an earthquake that swallowed them, their families and all their possessions

3. Remember: It was you who personally experienced the great things God did

1 Love the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.

2 Remember today that your children were not the ones who saw and experienced the discipline of the LORD your God: his majesty, his mighty hand, his outstretched arm;

3 the signs he performed and the things he did in the heart of Egypt, both to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his whole country;

4 what he did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots, how he overwhelmed them with the waters of the Red Sea as they were pursuing you, and how the LORD brought lasting ruin on them.

5 It was not your children who saw what he did for you in the wilderness until you arrived at this place, 6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth right in the middle of all Israel and swallowed them up with their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them.

7 But it was your own eyes that saw all these great things the LORD has done.
