

Laws That Mark the Believer As a Child of God; As Holy, Different, Distinctive Deuteronomy 06: 20–25

The duty of parents to teach the truth of salvation and of the commandments to children

- a. The fact: Children will ask about the LORD and His commandments
- b. The parents must teach the wonderful truth of God's deliverance from Egypt: A symbol of salvation
  - 1) Delivered by God's power – miraculous signs and wonders – executed against the Egyptians and Pharaoh
  - 2) Brought to the promised land – inherited the great gift sworn to the forefathers
- c. The parents must teach the truth of God's commandments
  - 1) Must obey and fear God
  - 2) The results:
    - 3) Will prosper and be preserved
    - 4) Will be counted righteous before God

20 In the future, when your son asks you, “What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?”

21 Tell him: “We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders – great and terrible – on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household.

23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors.

24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today.

25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness.”
